RULES COVERING EXHIBITION

- 1. USE OF AISLES, ETC. - The aisles, passage ways and overhead space remain strictly under control of the management and no signs, decorations, banners, advertising material, etc., may be used without special permission of the management. All exhibits must remain within the confines of the exhibitor's space and no exhibitor will be permitted to erect signs or display products in such manner as to obstruct the view, occasion injury or disadvantageously affect the display of other exhibitors.
- 2. RESTRICTIONS - The management reserves the right to restrict exhibits that may have been falsely entered or may be deemed unsuitable or objectionable. This reservation applies to noise, persons, things, conduct, printed matter or anything of a character that might be objectionable to the Show as a whole. It also applies to exhibits or advertising in all areas of the Nassau Veterans Memorial Coliseum.
- 3. STAFFING - The Show Management will expect booths to be staffed at all times during show hours. It is recommended that exhibitors discourage outside activities during show hours that will detract from the success of the show.
- 4. JANITORIAL SERVICES - Complete service for aisle and booths will be provided by management.
- 5. CERTIFICATE OF LIABILITY INSURANCE - The NYMTA must have a certificate of liability insurance covering your booth space from your insurance company. Your certificate of liability must name as additional insured and certificate holder the NYMTA, Nassau Coliseum, Nassau County, and Facility Management Co. of New York. Please send directly to: New York Marine Trades Association, Inc.

SHOW MANAGEMENT

The "Long Island Boat Show" at Nassau Coliseum is produced and managed by the New York Marine Trades Association, Inc. (NYMTA). All decisions regarding space assignment, nature and style of exhibits, floor management, hours and interpretation of rules and regulations shall be made by the NYMTA.

EXHIBITOR'S POLICY

- a) Exhibitor shall be bound by the rules, regulations and guidelines set forth by the New York Marine Trades Association, Inc.
- b) Exhibitor agrees that if it fails to comply with the terms, rules and regulations set forth by the boat show committee, The NYMTA shall have the right without notice to the Exhibitor to remove the exhibit and to relet said space or any part thereof.

ADMISSABLE EXHIBITS

- a) Exhibitor agrees to display only new or unused products (as opposed to used merchandise).
- b) Only the boats or products contracted for may be displayed in contracted space. All products must be listed by type and by brand name on the face of this contract.
- c) Products not actually exhibited within the Show may not be represented by models, signs, photographs or other means of representation.

PAYMENT FOR SPACE

- a) Exhibitor must submit a signed contract with a 20% deposit due upon receipt.
- b) Second payment of 30% will be due 100 days prior to show opening. All exhibitors will be sent a letter 2 weeks prior to the deadline as well as a phone call as a reminder.
- c) Final payment of 50% will be due 30 days prior to show opening.
- d) Any space not paid in full at this time can be made available to other exhibitors with boat show committee approval.
- e) Exhibitor with outstanding payments due before Show opening will not be permitted to move into the show.
- f) Payment plans for any open balances will be made on an individual basis. Two (2) boat show committee members must approve all payment schedules.
- g) All reservation deposit money shall be retained by the show in the event Exhibitor fails to fulfill contract or withdraws from the show.
- h) In the event of any outstanding balance at show opening, you agree that the credit card provided will be charged the entire amount in full.

COMPETING BOAT SHOWS

Any potential exhibitor or current exhibitor who produces a boat show that runs contemporaneously with a New York Marine Trades Association produced show will be prohibited from exhibiting at any and all NYMTA shows.

CANCELLATION

- a) If Exhibitor cancels this Agreement in writing sixty (60) days prior to the opening of the Show, any amount paid in excess of 50 percent of the Exhibitor's total obligation will be refunded.
- b) In the event you fail to fulfill or violate the contract or withdraw from the show, all reservation deposit money shall be retained.

SPACE ALLOTMENT

Exhibitor shall be entitled to renew exhibit space in a like amount occupied the previous year, but such renewal does not necessarily mean any Exhibitor will be assigned the exact same location occupied the previous year. It assures the Exhibitor only of the quantity of exhibit space. All Exhibitors must comply with and abide by all decisions made by the Boat Show Committee and the NYMTA.

SUBLETTING SPACE

- a) Subletting, assigning or apportioning of space is prohibited.
- b) Two or more firms may not exhibit in a single space, without written authorization from the Boat Show Committee.

MOVE-IN AND MOVE-OUT INSTRUCTIONS

Specific move-in and move-out instructions will be supplied to each exhibitor and Exhibitors must adhere to these instructions. Such instructions are a binding part of the contract.

INSURANCE

All Exhibitors and concessionaires shall, at their own expense provide and keep in force during the show period, including move-in and move-out periods, the following insurance coverage:

- a) Worker's compensation and employer's liability covering its employees in the state of New York, in accordance with the statutory regulations as set forth by the state.
- b) Comprehensive general liability insurance, including blanket contractual liability, naming the New York Marine Trades Association Inc., Nassau Coliseum as an additional insured, with limits of liability with at least $1,000,000 in respect to injuries to any one person resulting from any one occurrence, $1,000,000 in respect to injuries to one or more persons in any one occurrence, and $500,000 in respect to any damage of property resulting from any one occurrence.
- c) The Exhibitor is responsible for furnishing a certified Certificate of Insurance with worker's compensation, liability, fire, theft and damage coverage if requested by the management prior to the show or following any accident or incident.

The NYMTA shall not be responsible for any loss or damage to any property of the Exhibitor for any reason, including theft, unless damage is caused by gross negligence by the NYMTA or any of its employees.

INDEMNIFICATION

Exhibitor shall indemnify, hold harmless and defend the New York Marine Trades Association, their managers, Board of Directors, officers, sponsors, agents, employees, successors, and assignees from all losses, claims, liability, damage, action, judgments recovered from or asserted against Exhibitor, plus expenses (including without limitation, attorney's fees and expenses) for any injury to or death of any persons, or any loss of, through theft or otherwise, or damage to property arising in any way in connection with the use and enjoyment by the Exhibitor, or of any other persons or entity, with the permission, express or implied, of Exhibitor of the space, equipment or the show space; or arising from the use of equipment, devices furnished to or used by the Exhibitor, or other persons in connection with the show, or the use of the space. Such indemnification shall not be effective if damage or injury results from the sole gross negligence or willful misconduct of the Boat Show or any of its employees.

AMENDMENTS

The NYMTA shall have full power in the interpretation and enforcement of all rules contained herein, and the power to make such amendments thereto, and such further rules and regulations as it shall consider necessary for the proper conduct of a safe, clean, well regulated and attractive Show.

ACCEPTANCE

It is understood and agreed that until this document is executed and returned to NYMTA, it will not be deemed to be a legally binding Agreement between the Exhibitor and NYMTA, but only an Application from the Exhibitor to the NYMTA for space at the Long Island Boat Show at Nassau Coliseum. The NYMTA therefore reserves the right; in its sole discretion, to reject the Application for any reason whatsoever. If such Application is rejected, the payments received without interest will be returned to the Exhibitor within a reasonable period of time after the Application is rejected. If the Application is accepted, the NYMTA will execute a duplicate copy of the Application, at which time the Application shall become a legally binding Agreement between the NYMTA and the Exhibitor, enforceable in accordance with its terms, and the NYMTA will send an executed copy of the Agreement to the Exhibitor prior to the commencement of the show.

The Exhibitor understands that this Agreement is not effective or binding until accepted in writing by the NYMTA. Acceptance of space payments is not acceptance of the Agreement.

ACTS OF GOD

In case the show shall not be held due to acts of God, circumstances beyond the NYMTA control, or any other reason whatsoever, then this lease for space to the Exhibitor shall be terminated. In such case, the limit of claim for damage and/or compensation by the Exhibitor shall be the return to Exhibitor all payments made by the Exhibitor after deduction therefrom a pro-rata share of any expenses incurred on behalf of said Exhibitor and the show.
